

Please do not interfere with NJ's "Do Not Call List". For years now we have had to PAY for a service to discourage these calls. It is not fair. At least NJ government is attempting to be on the consumers' side for a change. Phone harassing should be banned throughout the country.